

Query Job

---

ID: 3b28dc7c2bce962442c031132d565770 Title: General Surgery - Travel NP - California - - - Excellent Benefits Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified general surgery np in california! about the position job details location: california start date: early march schedule: 8 hour shifts from mondays - fridays responsibilities: •charting •skin grafts •surgical wounds •tissue damage •leg/foot ulcers •other wound care cases/procedures benefits: strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company. whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry - ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation. flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between - you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need - greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you - so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal - to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible. pandologic. category: general, location: los angeles, ca-90040 permanent

---

Neighbor 1

ID: 0700e421ad99f11d41c16e102d06d534 Title: General Surgery - Travel NP - California - - - Excellent Similarity: 0.9986 Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified general surgery np in california! about the position job details location: california start date: mid february schedule: 8-10 hours per week responsibilities: •handle all wound cases •debridement •change dressings •suture wounds •conduct regular clinic procedures •provide in-home care additional information: •possibility of extension benefits: strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. 1594076expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company. whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry – ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation. flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between – you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need – greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you – so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal — to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible.pandologic. category:general, location:los angeles, ca-90040 full time

---

Neighbor 2

ID: f186f737556712bf4e01e1c74ec5dba3 Title: General Surgery - Travel PA - California - - - Excellent
Similarity: 0.9982 Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified general surgery pa in california! about the position job details location: california start date: mid february schedule: 8-10 hours per week responsibilities: •handle all wound cases •debridement •change dressings •suture wounds •conduct regular clinic procedures •provide in-home care additional information: •possibility of extension benefits: strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. 1594075expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company. whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry – ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation. flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between – you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need – greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you – so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal — to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible. pandologic.

category:general, location:los angeles, ca-90040 full time

---

Neighbor 3

ID: b7e1a9918b9138bfcaa4e0c6a21e23ff Title: Family Practice - Travel NP - California - - 1594506 - Excellent Benefits 2025-01-05 Similarity: 0.9970 Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified family practice np in california! about the position job details location: california start date: immediately schedule : 8a - 5p shifts from mondays - fridays responsibilities well/sick visits physicals er follow ups consults charting other family medicine cases additional information potential for assignment extension apply today to learn more! benefits strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. 1594506expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company.

whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry - ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation. flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between - you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need - greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen- staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you - so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal — to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible.

Neighbor 4

ID: c7b16e5f399ba035e27cfcfc72738051 Title: Vascular Surgery - Travel MD - California - - - Excellent Benefits Similarity: 0.9968 Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified vascular surgery md in california! about the position job details start date: late january schedule: 8a - 5p shifts from mondays - fridays with some night/weekend call coverage responsibilities: •new consults •follow ups •kidney stones •bladder infections •other urology cases/procedures additional information: •possibility of extension •emr system: epic benefits: strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company. whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry - ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation.

flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between - you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need - greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you - so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal - to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible. pandologic. category: healthcare, permanent

---

Neighbor 5

ID: 6de991dceaef286d3d1e095b8ec3e67d Title: Family Practice - Travel NP - California - - 1593779 - Excellent Benefits 2025-01-04 Similarity: 0.9965 Description (jobDescClean):

locumjobsonline is working with barton associates to find a qualified family practice np in california! about the position job details location: california start date: mid february schedule: 8a - 5p shifts from mondays - fridays responsibilities handling all aspects of family medicine cases and procedures additional information potential for assignment extension emr system: epic apply today to learn more! benefits strong compensation travel-related expenses covered a-rated medical malpractice insurance provided dedicated recruiter for future travel opportunities what are locum tenens jobs? locum tenens jobs (aka travel jobs) are contract roles designed to fill gaps in care at facilities and hospitals over a specific timeframe. these assignments can range from a week to well over a year, and often include opportunities for extension. locum and travel medical providers (physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and dentists) hold all the same qualifications as a permanent provider, and often choose locum work for higher pay and increased flexibility. 1593779expplat about barton associates the locum tenens experts barton associates is a leading national locum tenens physician, physician assistant, dentist, crna, and nurse practitioner staffing company. whether you need long term support for your practice, short term vacation coverage, immediate coverage due to an unplanned absence or resignation, or anything in between, our locum tenens experts are here to help. the best talent in the industry our experienced recruiting team conducts thorough interviews and reference checks to ensure that we have the best network of locum tenens physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners in the industry - ready to go when you are. maximize patient access and revenue locum tenens staffing through barton associates is an effective way for your organization to optimize patient access, ensure continuity of care, and maximize revenue generation. flexible solutions your organization needs to thrive whether you need long term coverage for your practice, short term vacation coverage, or anything in between - you can trust barton associates to provide the flexible staffing solutions your organization needs to thrive. a proactive approach we recruit new locums every day, actively help our physicians, dentists, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners obtain new licenses so they're ready to work in your state at a moment's notice. we can also help your organization credential locums in advance of a specific need - greatly improving your ability to react to unforeseen- staffing challenges. fast, easy, efficient hiring process from securing the perfect candidate to credentialing and travel-related issues, our experts handle the entire locum tenens staffing process for you - so you can focus on your practice. just let us know what you need and we'll take care of the rest! medical malpractice insurance provided many agencies charge additional separate fees for medical malpractice coverage. barton associates provides 'a' rated medical malpractice insurance for our locum tenens providers on assignment at no additional charge. industry leading support when you work with barton, you're supported by an entire team of experts; including recruiters, account managers, licensing and credentialing specialists, travel coordinators, and others with one goal — to make the process as fast, easy, and efficient as possible.

---